The Fenders play some greats from the '50s '60s, '70s, '80s and some of the new stuff, along with a couple of country favorites. Each song has a life of its own ... be it the appearance of the "king" Elvis ... a rap in the middle of a '70s classic ... to a beautiful ballad ... every song "The Front Fenders" play is one you want to dance to.

Hitz

Twenty plus years in the making, has gone thru many changes but has kept the same formula ... playing the greatest hits of all time. Classic rock from the '50s thru today with a little country added in for the country fans. From Alabama to the Everly Brothers, Beach Boys to the Bee Gees, Johnny Cash to AC/DC, Hitz brings excitement, audience participation and a knowledge of what makes an event fun for all. Although just a three piece group, with the addition of new technology you'll swear it's a 5 or 6 piece group, complete with sound and light system.

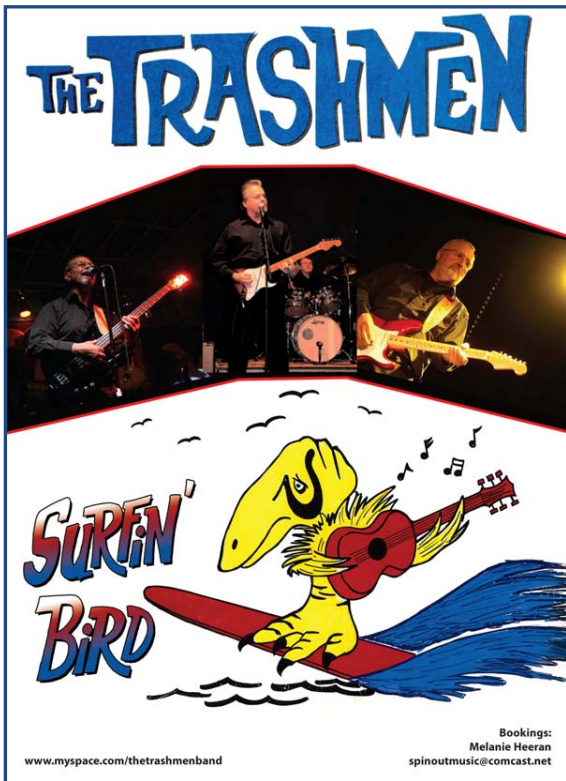

Saturday Night

Castaways

The Castaways feature a lively dance beat and tightly knit, quality sound, from the high energy of Bruce Springsteen to the soulful ballads of the Righteous Brothers. They fill the dance floor from the first note and keep the crowd dancing through every set of the evening! Their fast-paced and versatile song selections range from pop and album artists, classic rock, mood-setting ballads and the best of '50s and '60s favorites. The Castaways are known for their 60's national hit record, 'Liar, Liar', which has become a classic that still gets regular airplay across the country.

The Trashmen

Born in 1962, The Trashmen was a fledgling Minneapolis dance band playing teen dances and nightclubs in search of fame and fortune. That fame was realized when they turned their heads to the coasts and beaches of the California surf/drag craze where artists such as Dick Dale, The Beach Boys, Jan & Dean, The Tornados, Astronauts, Surfaris and The Ventures were securing their legacy with an array of instant classics. Adopting the “Surf Sound” in Minneapolis, they landed themselves on the charts in late 1963 with their hit “Surfin’ Bird” a combination of the Rivingtons “Bird is the Word” and “Papa Ooh Mow Mow”
